

CYM - QUAKER STUDIES - OCTOBER 13-15 2017

"Palestine-Israel, Nonviolence, and F/friends"

A WEEKEND OF PRESENTATIONS AND WORKSHOPS

LED BY MAXINE KAUFMAN-LACUSTA

HOSTED BY OTTAWA MONTHLY MEETING - 91A FOURTH AVE OTTAWA

Friday: 7pm to 9pm - Palestine-Israel, Nonviolence and F/friends: an overview and highlights from over a century of nonviolent resistance

Saturday: 9am to 12pm - Meet the (Palestinian and Israeli) Activists: in their own words, through film and interview excerpts

2pm to 5pm - Solidarity or Joint Struggle: some recent Palestinian popular resistance initiatives and the role(s) of Israeli activist organizations

7pm - Film - "The Wanted 18" an NFB produced, Palestinian directed film about one town's creative challenge to occupation-enforced dependency in the dairy industry

Sunday: 1pm to 4pm - International Solidarity by Friends and others, including panel of activists from solidarity organizations in Canada and reflection on the query: "Friend, what canst thou do?"

Saturday - Lunch and refreshment breaks provided

Sunday noon - Potluck

Registration is limited and required by September 30th <carol.v.dixon@gmail.com>

Limited Bed and Breakfast may be arranged with OMM hospitality <sybilgrace85@gmail.com>

Presentations will be recorded and made available on CYM website